Discovering secrets is titillating. Everyone wants to peek under the covers, be a fly on the bedroom wall, or read someone's diary. The juicier the secret, the more people want to know it, and sex is the most taboo of all subjects. It's human nature to be curious about what everyone else is doing. What do people like about sex? What are their fantasies? How far are they willing to go to please the one they love? These questions and more are explored, where everyday people offer up their most intimate secrets about sex. One part social experiment – one part personal journey mixed with a little shock value, a whole lot of confession, laugh-out-loud comedy, deceptively thought-provoking questions and answers, all in the name of self-awareness.
