A Voice in the Wind (Mark of the Lion Francine Rivers

From the rear cover of this 520 page book: "Torn by her love for a handsome aristocrat, a young slave girl clings to her faith in the living God for deliverance from the forces of decadent Rome." and "Rarely does the Christian market find a series of novels so well-written, so compelling and so in touch with the virtues of life....Dependence on God, a dramatic conversion to Christ, trust, dark temptations, family tensions, false religion, tragedy. Rivers uses these elements to weave a gripping story that allows God to show His strength and prevail as the hero."
