Outcome: A Blueprint for Becoming an Effective Church Tim Passmore

Author and pastor Tim Passmore gives an effective blueprint for leaders and members of the local body of Christ who want to construct effective churches.

Passmore shows readers you can make a difference in the world by reaching the lost with the good news of Christ, help new believers grow in their faith, and involve believers in the ministry as servants of God. He gives ten distinct steps leading to better church health, including diagnostic tool for measuring church health, and an organizational plan for healthy church ministry.

The purpose and construction of this type of church requires a building plan that will lead to Godly results—a church made up of people who are living out their purpose.

About the Author:

Dr. Tim Passmore is the senior pastor of Woodland Baptist Church in Bradenton, Florida, one of the fastest growing churches in the state. He has served in denominational leadership in the Southern Baptist Convention, and is active in training pastors and church leaders. Dr. Passmore received a Doctor of Educational Ministry from New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary in 2004. He is married and has four children.
