Evil is in the blood. The Holocaust ended over sixty years ago, but for one man it has only just begun. In modern day New York City, Jeffrey Mason has made it his mission to fulfill the prophecy of extermination put forth by his biological grandfather, Adolf Hitler. It begins with arson but quickly moves on to murder, with cryptic messages in German left scrawled on the victims' walls. As the acts of terror against the Jewish community intensify, it is up to NYPD detective John Sullivan, a man with his own troubled past, to stop him. When he receives a tip that there is going to be a bombing at a Jewish rally in Central Park Detective Sullivan and his team must act fast to save thousands of innocent lives.
