This book is written by Philip in his ninth grade realized that he couldnt join the track and field team for his bad grades in English. He knew that Margaret didnt like him. So he made a plan to transfer class from hers. He didnt just stand straight up silently when the national anthem was played but hummed out. After all these disciplinary violations, his parents were always on his side, ignoring his breaking the rules and focusing on patriotism. The conflict between Philip and the school raged higher and went beyond control. Even the leaders of local community and the national mass media are involved in.
