Rescued by the Alpha (Aliens and Rebels) Stellan Carth

The Alpha's massive frame blocked the door to her cell, cutting off any chance of escape. He claimed he was there to save her, but she knew better than to trust the word of a killer. He was more alien than man, and her body would have to stop responding to him like he was the answer to her every fantasy if she wanted to escape alive.

* This is a stand alone book. No cliffhanger. ****

* Kindle Unlimited users read for free. ****

* This steamy sci fi romance is intended for adult readers. ****

Jonas is an Alpha, one of the first alien-human hybrids created by the Plantero Corporation to terraform and colonize a remote planet. The Alpha experiment was deemed a failure. Its creations were more alien than human and too unstable. The Alphas are brutal, nearly ageless, and feed on the life energy of humans.

Plantero calls him a criminal. The rebels call him a vampire. Everly's parents call him their last hope.

He expect to rescue a terrified child from the company that warped him. Instead he found a voluptuous woman with a mind of her own. Their attraction is undeniable, a force of nature, and tests the limits of his self-control.

Jonas is unwilling to risk Everly's life, but this fiery, feminine warrior is isn't going to let anything keep her away from her soulmate, not even his warning that she won't survive the force of his love.
