Everyone has someone in their life who's achingly perfect. Jayne's problem is, she's marrying him. Jayne Brady is a happy woman. She's found love with her childhood crush, Will, she has a twin sister she adores, and she lives above a deli which gives her round the clock access to pastries and strong coffee. But sometimes things can be a little too perfect. When Will becomes an overnight internet sensation, their quiet life of contentment rapidly comes crashing down around them. Salacious tabloid stories, trolls and prying eyes become part of Jayne's daily life, while Will is welcomed into an elite world of glamour. As his fame soars, Jayne begins to feel side-lined, in daily life and in their relationship. Can they ever lead a normal life again? Is playing the fame game ever worth it? Funny, poignant and romantic, Very Nearly Perfect is an entertaining look at life's surprises and what really matters...
