Carter Stevenson is disciplined in all things; his world is neat, controlled, and focused on making money. When he is forced to hire a girlfriend to impress his investors, he finds Ella Graham falling into his office. He tries to resist her innocent charm, but instead is swept up in a wave of emotion he cannot understand and cannot fight. Unlike any woman he has known before, shy, kind, and smiling Ella seems to see right through him - past the business, the money and the penthouse lifestyle to Carter's cold, lonely soul. But will Ella's charm open Carter's heart... or push him away forever? This is a delicious stand-alone contemporary romance story with mature situations. Readers should be 18 plus!
