A murderer's child. A foster child. A troubled teen. Gabriel 'The Saint' Vega has never had an easy life. Being shuffled from one foster home to another after his father murdered his mother, he found himself in and out of trouble with the law. Never giving a damn about himself, let alone anyone else, his life was spiraling out of control, fast. Until one man and one sport changed everything... Frankie Carbone taught Saint how to handle his anger and rejection, by fighting it out in the ring. On his way to stardom, Saint finds himself pushed into the spotlight and into the arms of more women than he can ever imagine. He's completely content with one-night stands and random sex. Then Salem Harris comes walking into his life and changes his game plan... Saint finds himself wanting Salem in all the ways that scare him, but she's off limits, taken. However, that doesn't stop Saint from going after what he wants, and he wants her. Will Salem give him the one thing he's never known—love? Or will she end up breaking his heart?
